

She was the first woman in the United States to be awarded a "Distinguished Service Ruby" by Epsilon Sigma Phi, the national honorary fraternity for Extension workers.

Her work was dramatized on the National Broadcasting Company's 30-minute weekly program, "Cavalcade of America," in May, 1949.

Dr. McKimmon died Dec. 1, 1957 at the age of 90. The Jane S. McKimmon Center for Extension and Continuing Education at N. C. State University was dedicated in honor of Mrs. McKimmon on Oct. 18, 1976.

Home demonstration club meeting in 1924.